Submitted: June 14, 2000

Filed: June 29, 2000

Before WOLLMAN, Chief Judge, FAGG and BOWMAN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

The owners of Westwood USA Mobile Home Park and a group of present and former park residents (collectively Westwood) sued South Sioux City, Nebraska and various named city officials (collectively South Sioux City), alleging equal protection, due process, and Fair Housing Act violations related to South Sioux City's provision of water services and its enforcement of various City ordinances. The district court granted summary judgment to South Sioux City and Westwood appeals. Having carefully reviewed the record and the parties' briefs, we conclude an extended discussion is not warranted and affirm for the reasons stated in the district court's thorough opinions. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
